College Recommendation Form:

I will only write letters of recommendation for students who complete and turn in this form before April 30th of their junior year.

Name: ______________________________________

These are the strengths that I feel I exhibited this year: ______________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________

The best recommendation tells a story, a story that demonstrates a student’s strengths. What story from this year do you think I should tell to demonstrate your strengths?
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________

What else would you like me or the colleges to know?
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________